A CLOSE CALL.

Lindon May 37—An explosion of dyna mite occurred outside the detactive's office, Bootland Yard, London, at 9:35 this evening. The corner of this building, which was composed of thick brick work, was blown off to the height of thirty fest, culting with it a portion of the side wall and revealing an aperture difteen feet wide. The many cart-loads of debris lying around attest to the strength of the explosives. A brougham standing opposite the point of the explosion was wrecked and the cab man injured. A policeman was blown across the yard and striking against the wall was injured. Beveral other persons were injured by cuts from glass, which flew in all d rections. The explosive appears to have been piaced in an urinal let into the wall at the rear of the large building occupied by detectives.
